

All Saints Live press release 23rd July 2009

An Evening With Graham Kendrick

On Thursday September 10th All Saints Church, Wellington is excited to be hosting an evening with the 'father of modern worship music', Graham Kendrick. For more than 30 years Graham has been at the forefront of Christian music both in the UK and internationally having written and recorded hundreds of songs, many of which are well known around the world, including Shine Jesus Shine, Knowing You, The Servant King and Amazing Love. Graham will be coming to All Saints with some of his band to perform a selection of his songs and lead us in worship. This is a fantastic opportunity to hear a world renowned musician in a very intimate setting. The evening will start at 7:30pm and will last approximately 2 hours. Tickets cost just £5 each and are available from Illuminate in Shrewsbury or directly from Rich Clarkson at All Saints.

The concert is the latest in a series of events at All Saints as part of the 'All Saints Live' initiative. All Saints Live is run by Music Outreach Minister, Rich Clarkson, to promote All Saints as a quality live music venue by organising concerts and events in a range of styles. All Saints has already hosted a number of concerts with artists including the Watoto Children's Choir from Uganda, the Beaumaris Singers from Newport and several well known Christian artists including Stuart Townend, Paul Field and Cathy Burton. All Saints Live also hosts regular Open Mic Nights to give anyone a chance to perform and these are regularly attended by up to 80 people.
